DR. JOHN F. CROWLEY DEAN’S SCHOLARSHIP
College of Environment and Design Scholarship Advisement

Background: This fund was established in 2005 by the fifth Dean of the College of Environment & Design, Dr. John “Jack” Crowley, FASLA, FAICP. A truly gifted and charismatic individual, Dean Crowley assisted in lifting the School of Environmental Design to the status of College; the newest one created at UGA since 1969.

Purpose: To provide scholarship(s) or graduate assistantship(s) to promising students in Landscape Architecture or Planning, and who are encouraged to participate in educational travel as part of the collegiate experience, as a benefit of this award.

Eligibility: BLA/MLA; as nominated by Faculty or Staff to the CED Scholarship Committee. No GPA standard or minimum.
- Recipient must be accepted into a qualified travel study abroad program, and of accredited coursework at a location outside of the southeastern U.S.

There are NO Submission Guidelines

CED Conditions of the Scholarship:
1. In order to be considered for an award, students must be nominated by Faculty or Staff to the Scholarship Committee. The Scholarship Committee shall be responsible for determining who is “promising” by criteria.
2. Academic achievement, leadership, character and financial need will be taken into consideration in selecting the recipient, as well as approved travel abroad curriculum.
3. Scholarship award shall be no greater than the cost of travel abroad program approved.
4. Recipients must submit a final report of activities or achievements enabled by the scholarship at the close of the travel, research, or study period for review and stewardship of the donors.
5. Recipient may be asked to attend a meeting of the Alumni Association and make a presentation of their work.
6. Scholarship recipients are required to attend the Honors Night Ceremony on April 18th. A letter of thanks must be submitted by April 10, 2009 to the CED Development Director for review. Upon acceptance students will be contacted for signature, and letters will be mailed.
7. The College of Environment & Design reserves the right not to award any scholarship.