NETTLETON TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP
College of Environment & Design Scholarship Application

Background: This fund was established in 2003, in honor of Mrs. Carrie Buhrman Nettleton by her daughter Blakeslee Nettleton Chase. Mrs. Chase was the first female MLA graduate from UGA in 1958.

Purpose: To provide travel abroad support for full-time students majoring in Landscape Architecture in the College of Environment & Design, thus in order to become educated travelers.

Eligibility: BLA/MLA

General CED Submission Guidelines:
After obtaining a copy of the application forms, please comply with the following procedures and return them to the main CED office in 609 Caldwell Hall:

1. Per Fund, all applicants must have a University cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
2. Be certain that all of the following items are furnished with your application:
   - The completed application form (online)
   - A current official UGA transcript or copy thereof.
   - A recent photograph (at least 2” X 3”) or digital photo file (.jpg)
   - Your statement of application on why you are applying, and why you are deserving.
     (Please note, this statement is a very important part of the committee’s consideration.)
   - Three letters of reference.
3. In order to be considered, all application materials must be submitted in full, no later than 5:00 pm, on the 3rd Friday of February (Feb. 20, 2009).
4. Submit all application materials to:
   Scholarship Committee
   University of Georgia
   College of Environment & Design
   609 Caldwell Hall
   Athens, GA 30602-1845

Note: Make certain that your three references understand the importance of sending their letters in sufficient time to meet the deadline. Faculty references may use an online form.

CED & Nettleton Conditions of the Scholarship
1. Recipient must make a presentation to other students or the donor (by written, oral, graphic, or a combination of these methods) detailing their experience as a means of sharing and exposing other students to the benefits of studies abroad.
2. In order to be considered for an award, all application materials must be received no later than the designated deadline.
3. Academic achievement, leadership, character and financial need will be taken into consideration in selecting the recipient.
4. If the recipient fails to maintain a satisfactory GPA (a drop of 10% is considered unsatisfactory), or drops below full time status or out of school, remaining funds will be forfeited.
5. Recipient may be asked to attend a meeting of the Alumni Association and make a presentation of their work.
6. Scholarship recipients are required to attend the Honors Night Ceremony on April 18th. A letter of thanks must be submitted by April 10, 2009 to the CED Development Director for review. Upon acceptance students will be contacted for signature, and letters will be mailed.
7. The College of Environment & Design reserves the right not to award any scholarship.
