BARTOW WRIGHT RANKIN SCHOLARSHIP
College of Environment & Design Scholarship Application

Background: This fund was established in memory of Bartow Wright Rankin by his friends and family. Bartow was a committed environmentalist who earned his MLA at UGA in 1981. Tangible evidence of his belief that development and environmentalism not only can co-exist, but also add great value to American cities, is scattered throughout Atlanta in the many projects on which he worked. These include the Fernbank Museum of Natural History, Coca-Cola’s headquarters, Skyland Trail, the Grand Hyatt, 999 Peachtree, the Mayfair Apartments, Ravinia, and Home Depot’s corporate campus.

Purpose: To provide scholarship(s) or assistantship(s) for a graduate student in Landscape Architecture in the College of Environment & Design.
