DOUG ALLEN, BLA ’71

Douglas Allen earned his bachelor of landscape architecture from UGA ’71, and his master of landscape architecture from Harvard ’76. Doug is professor emeritus and former Dean of the College of Architecture at Georgia Tech, teaching courses in landscape architecture, urban history, and urban design. In addition to lecturing at a large number of universities, was as a jury member for the International AID Housing Competition in Hyundae, Korea. He has also served on professional awards juries for the American Institute of Architects and the American Society of Landscape Architects. His portfolio includes the development of a master plan for the University of Bir Zeit (West Bank, Israel, 1983) and Korean War Memorial (Baltimore, Maryland, 1987). His work includes several award winning projects, including the Perdue Garden (Atlanta, GA. 1983), which was featured in the book, Contemporary Trends in Landscape Architecture, by Steven Cantor. Other award winning projects include Piedmont Arbors Condominiums (Atlanta, GA. 1986, with Taylor and Williams), The Dash Residence (Atlanta, GA. 1996 with Lane M. Duncan and Michael Gamble), and StudioPlex a mixed use development in Atlanta (with Brock + Green, Architects, 1999). More of Doug’s design work has appeared in Progressive Architecture, Builder Magazine, and House and Garden.
